AND IN HER MORNING

The Virgin Mary cannot enter into
The soul for an indwelling; God alone
Has sealed this land as secretly His own
But being mother and implored, she comes
To stand along my eastern sky and be
A drift of sunrise over God and me.

God is a light and genitor of light
Yet for our weakness and our punishment
He hides Himself in midnights that prevent
All save the least awareness of Him.

We strain with dimmed eyes inward and perceive
No stir of what we clamored to believe.
Yet I say: God (if one may jest with God)
Thy hiding hath not reckoned with Our Lady
Who holds my east horizon and whose glow
Lights up my inner landscape, high and low.
All my soul's acres shine and shine with her!
Thou art discovered, God; awake, arise
Out of the dark of Thy Divine surprise!
Thine own reflection hath revealed Thy place,
For she is utter light by Thine own grace,
And in her light I find Thee hid within me,
And in her morning I can see Thy face.

1965

To His Excellency, Joseph Lennox Federal, Bishop of the Diocese of Salt Lake

To the Reverend James T. Kenny, Supervisor of School, Diocese of Salt Lake for their sincere interest and concern...

But most especially...

To those girls who have strengthened St. Mary by their sacrifices...their courage...their patience...their faith ...their prayers and their diligence.

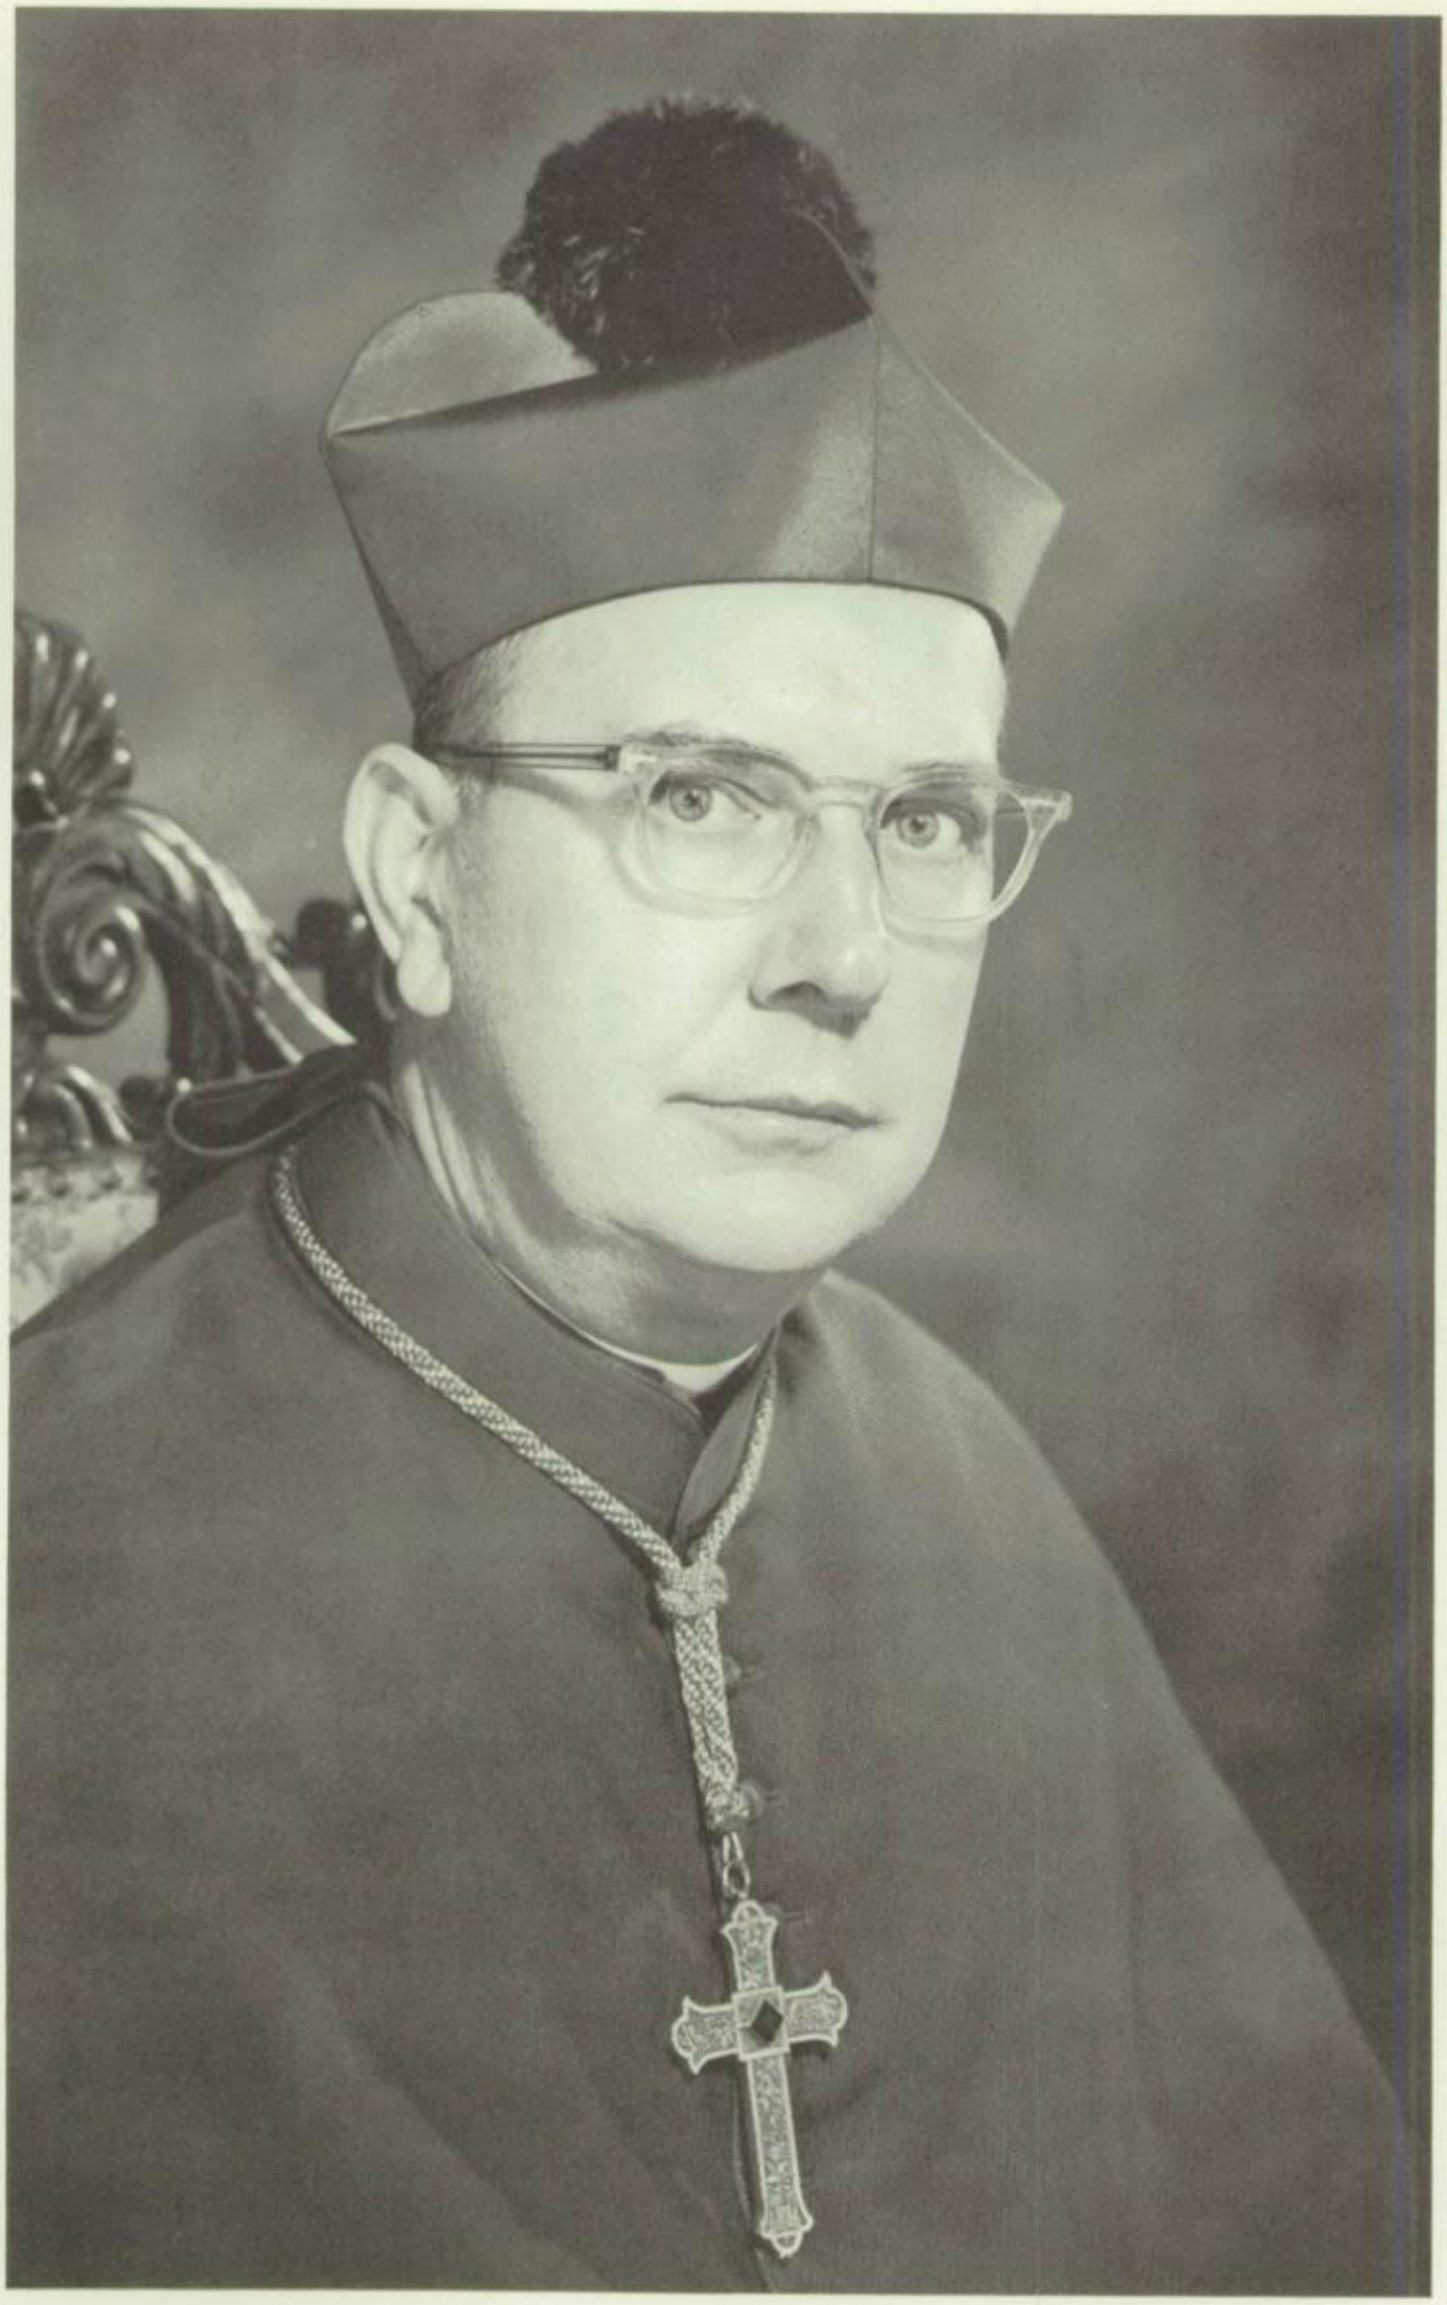
To those who have cheered St. Mary by their smiles...their charm...their good humor...their spirit...their graciousness and their generosity...

To those who have enhanced St. Mary by their beauty of soul, and, yes, their beauty of body....

These girls are our "drift of sunrise," our "glow" in whom

"Thou art discovered, God..."

It is to these that we dedicate the 1965 MARYCREST.



THE MOST REVEREND JOSEPH LENNOX FEDERAL, D.D.

Bishop of the Diocese of Salt Lake City

SISTER M. GIOVANNI, C. S. C.
Principal
St. Mary of the Wasatch

My dear Students,

As our first year together at St. Mary of the Wasatch draws to a close I find these words of Holy Scripture recurring to my mind more frequently and more insistently: "Unless the Lord build the house, they labor in vain who build it. "

I thought of this often during the year as faculty, parents and students worked together to make our dream of the Greater - St. Mary become a reality. The success of our undertaking, the many blessings beyond our expectations that have come to us, assure us that God has been the Builder, permitting us to work with Him.

In this spirit I extend gratitude and appreciation to each devoted friend, from our Bishop and clergy, our parents and faculty, down to our dear girls.

Let us look forward to many more years of building with God at St. Mary of the Wasatch and in the world.

Devotedly,

Sister M. Giovanni, C. S. C.

SISTER M. TERESA CLARE, C.S.C.
1901-1965

On her deathbed she said, "No one is to feel bad, now . . . "

We do. We still grieve.

But mostly, we feel proud . . . proud of the part she played in keeping the Model United Nations in the Utah Highschools . . . proud of the respect shown her by the clergy, the religious, and the laity of the diocese . . . proud of the calm integrity of her life . . . proud of the serene and sturdy way she prepared for her death . . .

We feel proud to have worked with her . . . proud to have been taught by her . . . proud to have known her.

May she rest in peace.

This is my friend.

And he says I look like a witch.

Really I am competent.

What do you mean I have a screechy voice?

She flies through the air with the greatest of ease.

Does anyone have a banana?

Me? I have more fun.

SNOW!!

And it was at THAT moment that they decided to sign the Magna Carta!!!

If you don't be quiet, I'm going to tape your mouth shut.

Our moderator?!

"Variety is the spice of life."

Let me in!

But all those people!?

Sister, am I beautiful?

Head of Pre-school

We're the other 50%.

Do you feel down and out?

Me? Sure I'd rather fight than switch!

And then . . .

The THINKER!

How tall did you say?

Do you ever get the feeling that you're on the inside looking out?

Get me out of this hole!!

I'll save you!!!

Dear Viewers,

At the close of months of taking pictures, making layouts, and staying up late writing and rewriting copy, the Marycrest staff has completed their job to bring to you the 1965 Marycrest. We hope that this book will not only be a book of memories for everyone but to the seniors this last book will also be a rememberance of their preparations for bigger things.

As editor of Marycrest, I extend personal thanks to Sister M. Ann Veronica, C.S.C., and the staff, especially Margo Spencer, Pat Buckley, Cindy Nielsen, and Kathy McChrystal who have given much of their time to help me complete this book.

I wish to thank our advertisers who by their generosity, brought us closer to meeting our budget, to Mr. and Mrs. Terashima and the men at Shutterbug Photo for the time and patience given to us, we are very grateful.

Sincerely,

Jolynne Smith

AND IN HER MORNING

The Virgin Mary cannot enter into
The soul for an indwelling; God alone
Has sealed this land as secretly His own
But being mother and implored, she comes
To stand along my eastern sky and be
A drift of sunrise over God and me.

God is a light and genitor of light
Yet for our weakness and our punishment
He hides Himself in midnights that prevent
All save the least awareness of Him.

We strain with dimmed eyes inward and perceive
No stir of what we clamored to believe.
Yet I say: God (if one may jest with God)
Thy hiding hath not reckoned with Our Lady
Who holds my east horizon and whose glow
Lights up my inner landscape, high and low.
All my soul's acres shine and shine with her!
Thou art discovered, God; awake, arise
Out of the dark of Thy Divine surprise!
Thine own reflection hath revealed Thy place,
For she is utter light by Thine own grace,
And in her light I find Thee hid within me,
And in her morning I can see Thy face.

. . . . Jessica Powers
